Census Day April 4, 2011

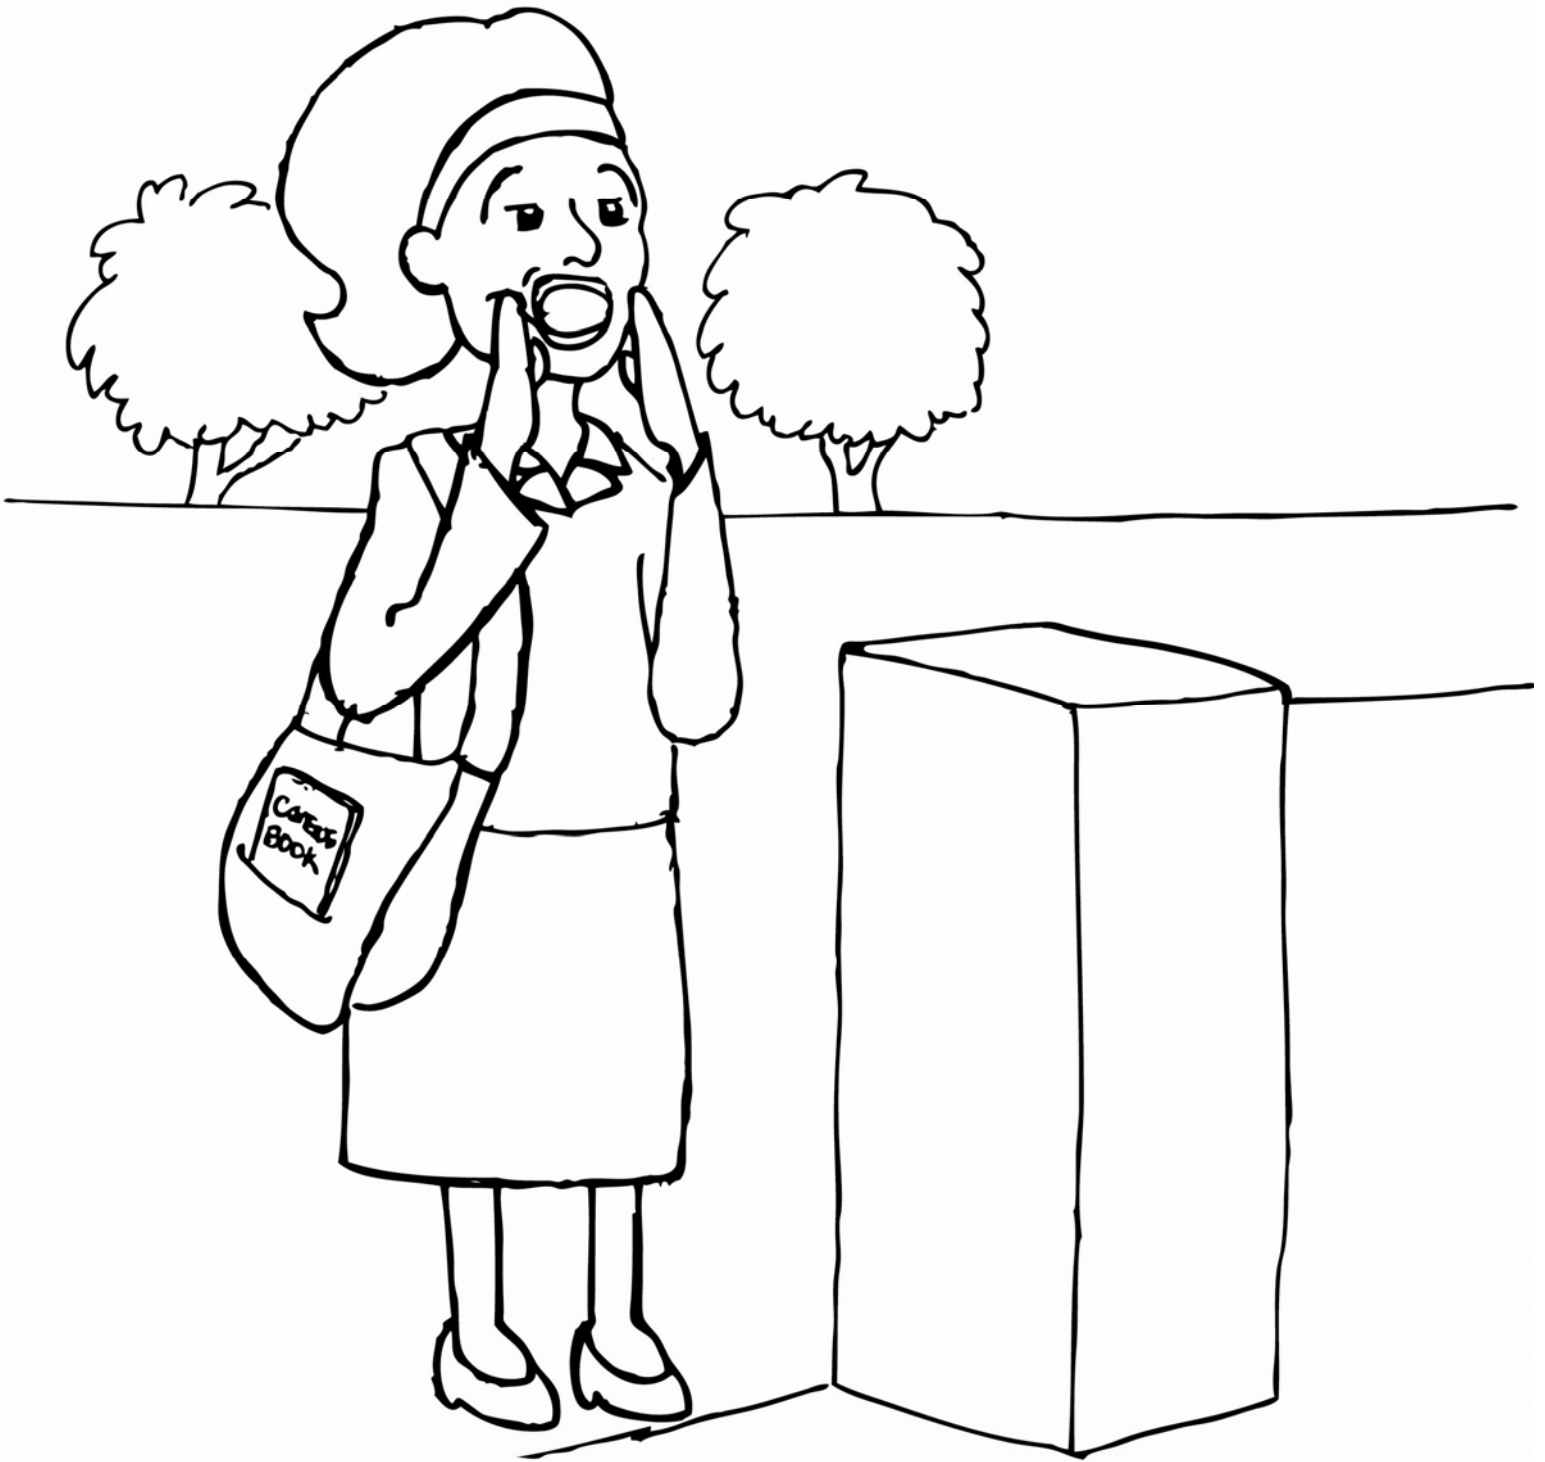

Today is Monday April 4, 2011. It is Census Day in Jamaica and everyone is getting ready to be counted. Census takers will be visiting homes starting tomorrow, April 5.

Miss Brown the Census Taker

Miss Brown the census taker is working in the community of Cacoon in Hanover. She works with the Statistical Institute of Jamaica (STATIN) which is responsible for conducting a census.

Miss Brown visits Jason's Home

Miss Brown goes to Jason's home. She is at the gate calling to see if anyone is at home.

Miss Brown is with Jason's Family

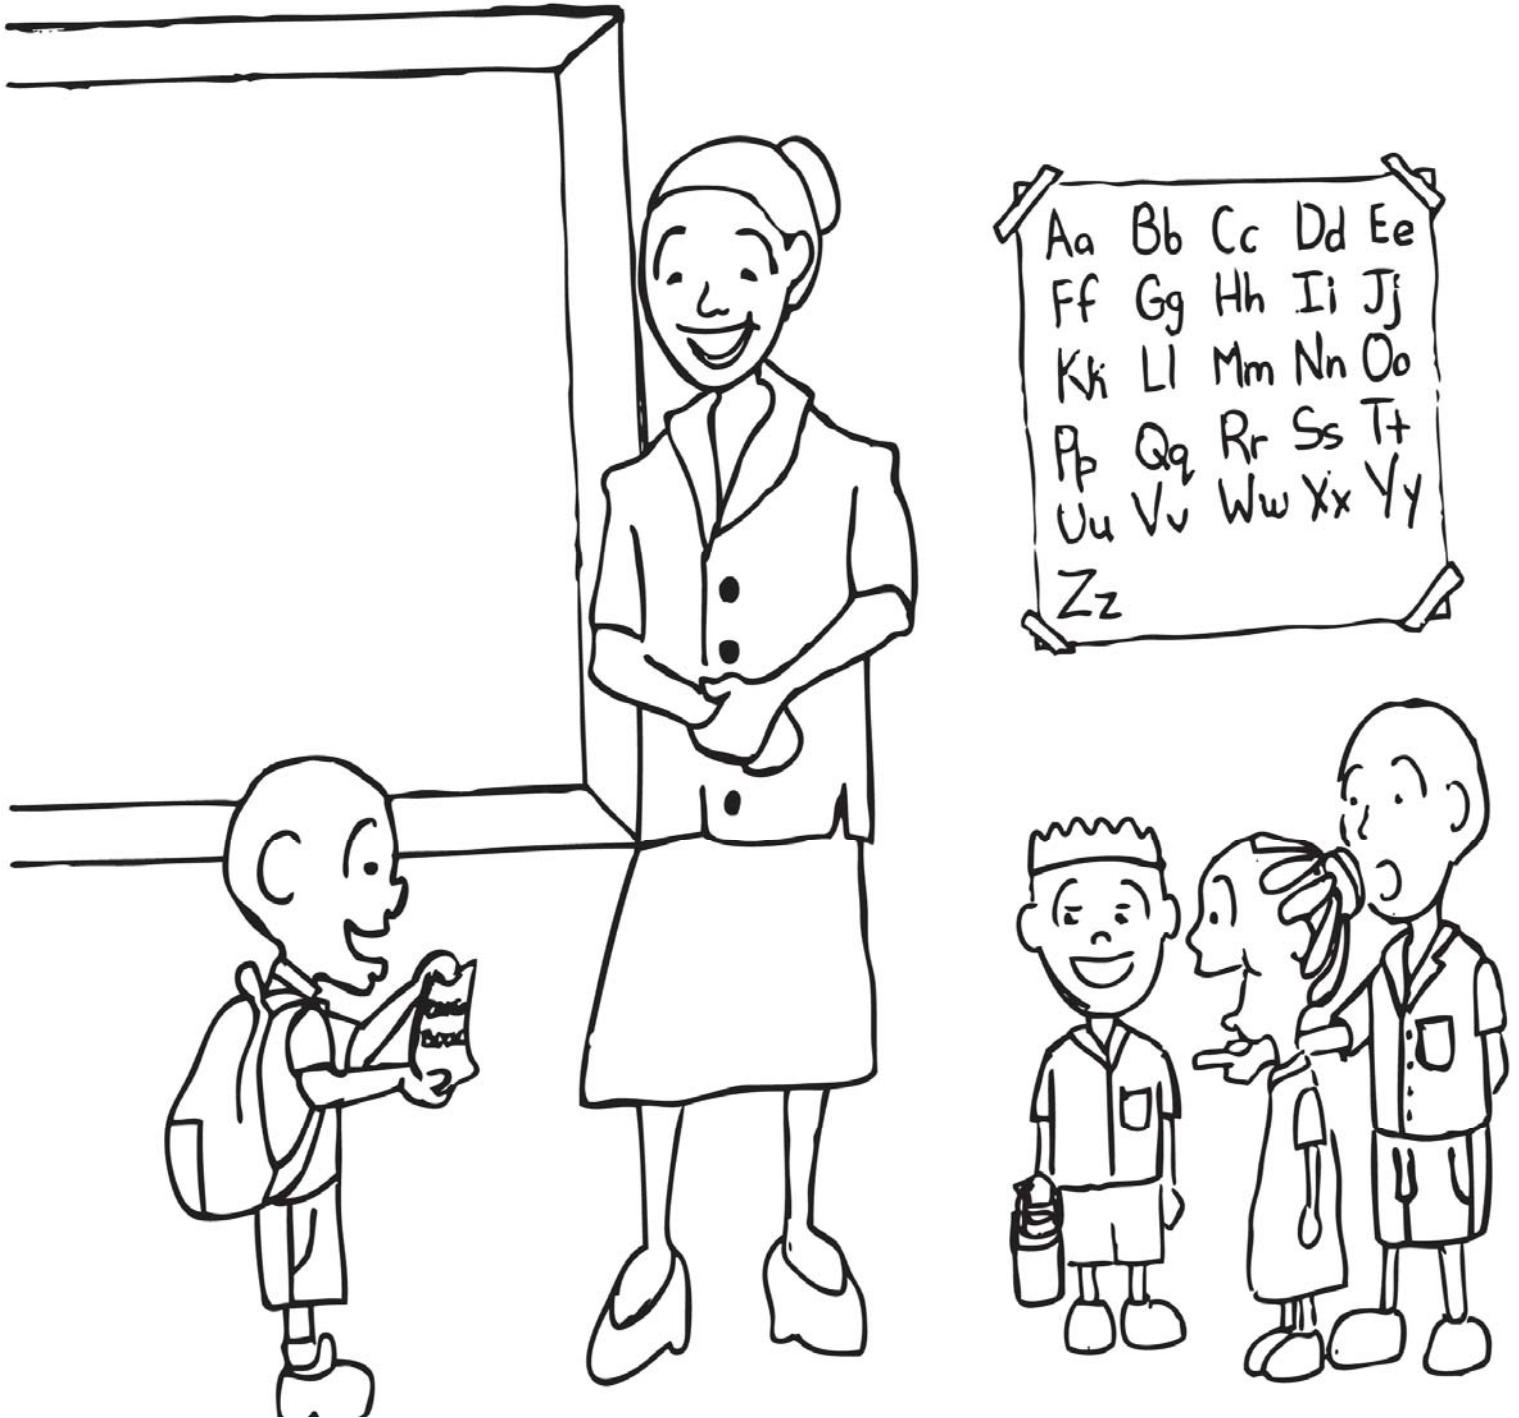

Jason is excited to see the census taker and calls his parents. Miss Brown gets the information from Jason's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walters. There are three persons in Jason's household.

Miss Brown says Goodbye

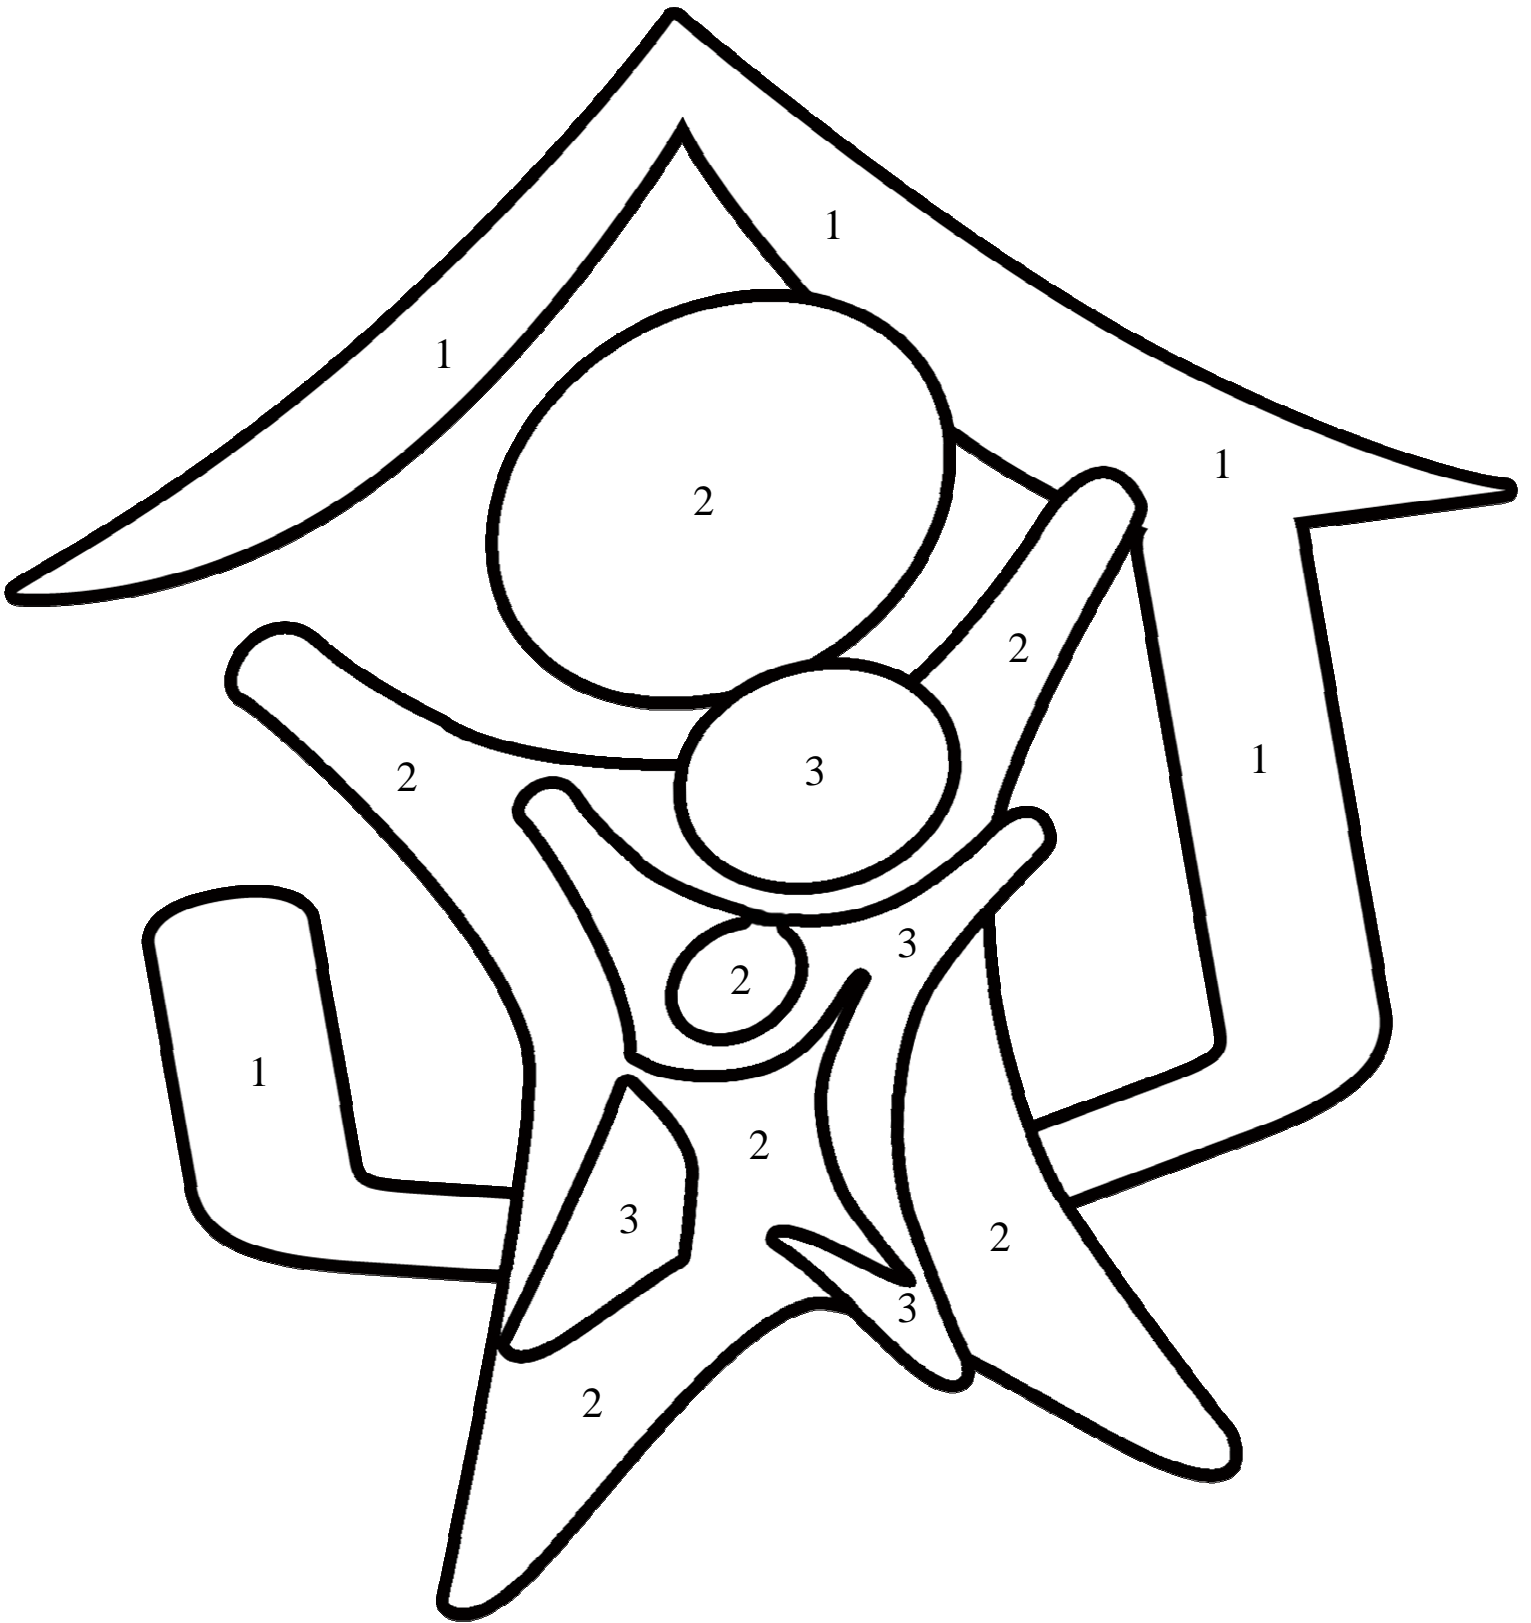

Miss Brown is finished and is leaving. Mr. and Mrs. Walters wave goodbye. Miss Brown is going to visit the next house to get their information.

Jason Talks About the Census Taker

The next day Jason tells his teacher, Miss Simon and his classmates about the census taker who visited his home. Miss Simon tells the class about the census. She tells them that a census is taken every ten years in Jamaica.
